

I am outraged about Sinclair Broadcasting Group's blatant partisan activity during the current presidential election. This is a prime example why media consolidation is a danger to our democracy. The FCC must act to end this and similar threats to our Republic.